DECLARATION OF RICHARD SILVERSTEIN IN CONNECTION WITH MOTIONS BY THE COUNSEL FINANCIAL ENTITIES TO CONVERT DEBTORS' CHAPTER 11 REORGANIZATIONS TO CHAPTER 7 LIQUIDATIONS

RICHARD SILVERSTEIN, declares under 28 U.S.C. 1746:

1. I am a consultant to numerous contingency fee law firms nationally, primarily assisting in securing financing. I believe that I am the “broker” referred to by Mr. Liddle in paragraph 39 of his affidavit dated December 11, 2019.
2. Throughout 2019, I was engaged by Pierce Bainbridge Beck Price & Hecht LLP (“Pierce Bainbridge”), as their consultant for the purpose of arranging financing for the firm

3. In early 2019, I became aware that Jeffrey Liddle, Esq. was in discussions with Pierce Bainbridge about a business transaction involving his firm or his practice, and I recall having phone conversations with Mr. Liddle.

4. During this time I performed an online search of Mr. Liddle and saw certain negative information about him on various websites. I did not make any judgment about the veracity of the information. I informed John Pierce, Esq., the founder of the firm of my findings and sent him links to the websites.

5. Counsel Financial has not made a loan to Pierce Bainbridge.

6. I have no reason to believe that Counsel Financial interfered in any way in the discussions between Pierce Bainbridge and Liddle & Robinson.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 16th day of December, 2019
